Suggestions for Contestants

- ★ Choose an evocative name for your character, but avoid names of real persons (living or dead) or names already used for famous fictional characters.
- ★ Good character abilities should be easily described in no more than three lines of card-sized text.
- ★ Use simple, easy-to-understand language for your character ability.
- ★ Be original, but don't create an ability that will distort the game mechanics and rules.
- ★ Pay attention to how your character interacts with the other cards in the game! The character should be compatible with all expansions.
- ★ When possible, avoid exceptions. If your character ability needs more details, include this information as separate text (similar to the character descriptions in the rulebook).
- ★ Keep in mind the style and the spirit of the game.
- ★ Consider all the possible consequences of your card in game play and, above all, test it with your friends!
